HOME COMING SHOWS CLEAN ATTRACTIONS

All Concessions Will be Censured as to Morality Before Allowed Permission to Operate—Committee to Meet.

Plans for Homecoming week, to be held the first week of September, are taking up the greater part of the time of the Mishawaka Business Men's association as this body has but a month within which to prepare for the big week.

Letters are coming in daily asking for concessions and permission to operate shows, stands and various other attractions. These letters are being considered and in all probability many of the requests will be granted provided the shows and attractions which seek permission to operate are clean and desirable. The one aim of the association in regard to the coming celebration is that it shall be on a high plane of morality. All shows are to be censored and the business men will receive tickets to all concessions that they may examine them at their pleasure and pass on the act or acts. Admission to all of the attractions has been tendered the pastors of the local churches by the association. Whatever may come to the city in the way of shows the people may rest assured that they will be clean.

Along with the request for permission to present attractions came a request from a local man, Otto Jensen, asking that the committee engage him to make a high dive from the top of the Rippel mill into the south end of the lake. Jensen, who did this stunt at a local celebration several years ago and the committee is seriously thinking of staking the local high diver again.

Pres. Ostrander of the Business Men's association will issue a call within a few days for a meeting of the committee to take care of the preliminary arrangements and to arrange for the printing of posters and cards advertising the coming celebration.

The home-coming is expected to draw back to Mishawaka hundreds of old residents for a week's visit in the city of their youth.

TENNIS ENTHUSIASTS PREPARING FOR MEET

Local tennis enthusiasts are preparing for the annual tournament which will be held at Winona lake the week after next. Last year the representatives from this city were highly successful at the week and brought home several honors. They are confident of duplicating their performance this year and consequently practice is in order on the various courts of the city every evening.

Robert Zimmerman, runner up in the recent tennis tournament at Fort Wayne, is expected to make a great showing at Winona. If in the form he displayed at Fort Wayne he should have little difficulty in taking first in the singles. Zimmerman may have a partner and enter the doubles event, in which case the team would make a good showing. Atty. Ralph Jernegan and Ralph Smith will play in the doubles and are conceded a good chance for victory in this event. This team won the silver cup for the consolation double tourney last year.

WORK ON LIGHTING SYSTEM RENEWED

Work installing Lighting System at Battell Park Again Started—Water Fountains Will Also Be Installed.

Work was ordered resumed at Battell park, installing the boulevard lighting system by the park board. The board was extended the right, according to the resolution passed at the last meeting of the council pending a city ordinance, to use all money as they deem best, now available in the park fund. The resolution was passed as City Attorney Parks is out of the city and an ordinance could not be drawn up. The board will now go ahead with all improvements.

There will be 12 of the poles which are of the same design as those in the business district installed about the park. They will be placed along the paths about 150 feet apart and two will be placed at the tennis court at the extreme west of the grounds so lovers of this sport may enjoy the game after dark. Boxes for the cement foundations have already been constructed and it is expected that with a gang of expert electricians at the work the installation can be completed this summer.

Six new bubbling drinking water fountains have arrived and are expected soon. These six will also be installed at the park, and several which have been shipped by the firm manufacturing them will be placed about the downtown district, both on the north and south sides of the river. They will not be installed until the new pure water system is completed, which is only a few weeks distant.

LETTERS OF PEOPLE.

To the Editor of the South Bend News-Times:

While I do not wish to belittle any of the issues that have been brought up in connection with the coming municipal election, there are others of great importance of which is the treatment given the inhabitants of Mishawaka, by the Chicago, South Bend and Northern Indiana Railway Co.

Monday I boarded car No. 293 marked "North Side", conductor No. 142 at South Bend, which arrived at Main and Second sts. at 8:03 o'clock, in a pouring rain, and the passengers were crowded in the car did not go any further east.

After asking the conductor three times he gruffly informed me it was a "Special", why, or for what purpose I did not find out, nor did I see any sign to indicate it.

All of the passengers, some of whom were ladies, had to disembark in the rain, and find shelter where they could until the next car, 15 minutes later.

The uselessness of complaining to the company is well known, and they might be able to defeat any candidate for city clerk, for the citizens of Mishawaka, an issue or slogan in the local election. —J. ALVIN SCOTT.

LEADERS CLASH IN TARIFF DEBATE

Stone Charges Republicans With Deliberate Attempt to Bring on Panic by Speeches Attacking Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Democrats and republicans in the senate clashed again Wednesday in the debate on the Underwood-Simmons bill when Sen. Stone charged that the republicans were deliberately attempting to bring on a panic in their speeches attacking the pending measure. Sen. Gallinger asserted he was "a calamity howler," but that he actually feared the results which he hoped would not come. If the disaster he feared did not come, the senator said, the glory would go to the democrats.

The measure declared that not only did he fear the proposed bill would bring on disastrous consequences, but that industrial depression was already upon the country.

Sen. Kuylenstierna averred that in his talks he had always said that he did not believe the pending bill would result in disaster and that the people of this state did not have so little faith in the republicans as the progressive republicans said.

"I mean that the majority of the minority was attempting to arouse the people," he said.

The earthenware schedule was completed except for a few paragraphs which were passed, and the metal schedule was taken up. Strong opposition to this schedule developed, substitutes being proposed by Sen. Oliver for the regular republicans and Sen. Cummins for the progressive republicans.

POLITICAL POT BOILS MERRILY

Gaylor Case, John Berntsen and a number of other candidates, loudly and lightly on the questions at issue and many of them stated their qualifications for the office which they were seeking and still others were content to splutter the administration with the usual harangue.

Fred Keller, who was mentioned Tuesday as a candidate for mayor on the citizens' ticket, again refused to give out a statement although it was understood by his friends who have prepared a petition to be circulated requesting that he announce himself, that he will not go back on them.

Meetings will be held every night up to the night before the primaries, when an effort will be made to hold a mass meeting in one of the downtown theaters.

In the republican camp leaders remained inactive, although efforts are still being made to get a leader for the ticket. According to one of the leaders there will be a ticket in the field if a candidate can be secured to head it. William N. Egan, a heavily escaped having his name at its head while Dr. C. R. Crumpacker by numerous dodges and maneuvers has been able to keep his name out of it.

Bergan stated that he is not a candidate, but it is whispered down the line that he will be officially regarded as the head of the ticket unless he files a petition by Thursday night stating that he withdraws.

Candidates whose names are on file with the election board by Thursday night or five days before the primary election will not be able to withdraw if he is elected by force to act as the official head of the ticket up to the fall election. Other names were mentioned in an effort to find one who would accept the place and among them was the name of Dr. F. R. Carson, who when questioned about it stated that he would not consider such a proposition.

Movements along the progressive lines were as dull as on days previous.

JEWEL ROBBERS PUT SUMMER HOMES ON EDGE

Detectives are here, but at least three agencies have been called upon for their best operatives. All the railway stations and wharves are being closely watched in the hope that the thieves may have been unable to leave town. Mrs. Hanna stoutly denied Wednesday night that any one in her family was under suspicion. She also told something more of the circumstances surrounding the loss of her jewels. After selecting what she wished to wear Friday night, all but a few pieces were returned to a secret drawer in a bureau and the drawer locked. The maid who assisted her to dress left the room when Mrs. Hanna did. Some time later the woman returned to the room and then noticed that the treasure drawer was open and the greater part of Mrs. Hanna's jewelry missing. She immediately notified other servants and waited for the return of Mrs. Hanna.

"My maid was so shocked at the discovery of the loss," said Mrs. Hanna, "that she had not recovered her senses and she had been made sick over the affair and I am very sorry for her. She has been in my employ for 25 years and I trust her absolutely."

Up to Wednesday night the detectives had apparently discovered no solution to the Hanna or Rumsey robbery, though they came to the conclusion that at the Rumsey home the thieves had taken the jewelry which was seen standing unlighted near the house Saturday night.

BOY LOST.

Clement Sobocki, 10 years old, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ignatius Sobocki, lived at 318 S. Francis st., left home Wednesday night at 6 o'clock and up to early Thursday morning had not been found. His father came to the police station after 1 o'clock and left a description of the lad, who was last seen near the wool factory in the evening. The police are making a search.

INFANT REGINALD TOTTH.

BEVERIDGE SPOILS PLANS.

As nothing has been heard from former Sen. Albert J. Beveridge, who was invited to speak at a celebration of the first anniversary of the organization of the bull moose party on Aug. 5, arrangements for the event are at a standstill. The committee in charge is at a loss to know what to do. It is now too late to invite another speaker and Beveridge's failure to reply has complicated matters.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

B. Merrill Everett was arrested at his home at 2 o'clock this morning, charged with the theft of $30 from a bank, proprietor of a loan agency.

Click alleges that Everett borrowed $30 from him, securing the loan with a mortgage on household goods, which it is claimed were already encumbered precluding the collection of the claim.

C. OF C. OUTING PROVES TO BE ONE BIG SUCCESS

for their display and favorable comments were heard on all sides.

Proceeding north from Elkhart the outing autoists drove directly to Christiansburg lake and the cars were parked in the shady grove near the shore. A pleasant hour was passed resting under the trees until dinner was served. The hotel had only arranged to accommodate about 200, as the responses to the committee did not indicate that more than that number would attend, so that it was necessary for a number of the guests to wait until the second table before they could be served and it was a depleted larder left in the hotel when the last hungry visitor had been served.

Sports Begin.
After dinner the day's sports started with the fat men's race with the following results and prizes:

Fred A. Loughman, first, raincoat. Adair Bros., W. A. McInerney, second, pair of white shoes. Beltroni Sons; J. McCullough, third, French clock. C. K. Clauer. Also ran: Hon. Marvin Campbell, A. M. Russell, Fred C. Carson, George A. Robertson, Fred Christman and James H. Loughman. The distance was 200 feet and the time estimated at from five seconds to five minutes.

The 100-yard dash resulted: Clark Carson, first, aluminum cooking set. G. E. Meyer & Son; M. Hamilton, second, Stetson hat. Meyer Livingston Sons; Will Cass, third, Chinese padlock. A. Zeltner. Time—4 1-2 seconds.

Clark Carson won the baseball throwing contest, heaving the sphere over 200 feet and winning a McCray refrigerator from George Wheelock & Co.; James Farman, second, Swiss music box. Elbel Bros.; S. A. Walker, third, umbrella. J. P. Goldy. There were half a dozen other willing throwers but most of them threw up in the trees or hit the house which was to be very much in the way.

The peanut race was a mad scramble to convey ten peanuts from one line to another a short distance away, carrying one nut at a time. L. A. Orr won, getting a sweater and outfit from Sam'l Spiro & Co.; Dr. J. A. Stockley, second, bottle of toilet water, Lewis Landon & Co.; E. R. Austin, third, choice confections. J. B. Weber. Dr. Clem Shidler had a bad chance of winning, as he was a Miller began replenishing his pile as fast as he carried them away until he finally had to resort to carrying them in his hat. Carl J. Anderson also made a dash for it, but fell down and dropped out of the race.

In the candidates' sack race Donald Drummond won easily, securing a suit of clothes donated by the Ridenour Apron company. J. E. McCullough was second, prize, smoking set. A. M. Russell; J. A. Swygart, third, three months' subscription (back numbers) of the Tribune; Louis M. Hammerichmidt, fourth, Colgate toilet preparations. R. P. Milton.

The standing broad jump was hotly contested and resulted: E. M. Morris, first, library chair. C. A. Dolph & Son; Herbert Warner, second, marble box. J. E. Meyer & Son; J. B. Shoop, hat. A. R. Mayerfeld. The winner jumped 9 ft. 9 in.

The high jump was won by Clark Carson, first, height 4 ft. 8 in. prize, material for suit of clothes. National Grocer Co.; F. A. Bryan, third, box of handkerchiefs, Robertson Bros. Co.; Dr. Stockley, fourth, porch swing. A. H. Heller; Nelson Jones, fifth, Chard & Tompsett.

James claims he won the high jump, but had some one not grabbed the bundle he had selected and the one he got was too hard to button up the back.

A story telling contest between Dr. Charles Stone and Ralph Seely resulted in a walk-away for the latter who, after putting on the soft pedal, delivered one of his inimitable dialect anecdotes. He received a salt and pepper set for his effort.

Led by the band the crowd proceeded to the spot where one of the big sporting events of the afternoon was to be held. Many tickets had been sold and Dennis was in charge, assisted by Nelson Jones, Frank Freymuth, H. Kriehbaum and Dr. F. R. Carson. One of the combatants

DOESN'T CARE TO GAMBLE WITH DEATH LONGER

ELKHART, Ind., July 30.—After viewing the corpse of Lake Shore Brakeman Johnnie Roy, his fellow employee and roommate who met death under the wheels of his train in Chicago Tuesday morning, Lake Shore Brakeman Milo Mast immediately resigned his position and returned to the home of his parents, who reside on a farm two miles north-east of Goshen. Mr. Mast declared that he had a premonition that he would suffer a serious misfortune if he continued as a railroad and asserted that he "did not care to gamble with death any longer."

The funeral of Mr. Roy will be held from St. George's German Lutheran church at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Burial will take place at Grace Lawn cemetery.
